

The BASE OF THE NUT of the hydrant (where it enters the hydrant) is NOT to be painted. The FD uses this nut to turn the hydrant on and off.

The THREADS of the hydrant are NOT to be painted. The FD must be able to thread their hoses to the hydrant and paint prevents this. It is similar to painting the window shut on your house. Makes it difficult to provide safety during fire.

WCO USE ONLY
Submission # _____
Date _____
Loc Pref _____

